Classic Cake Takes Top Honors at the National Constitution Center Cake Off

September 24, 2007 – Cherry Hill, NJ – Classic Cake, based in Cherry Hill, New Jersey, received top honors at the National Constitution Center Cake Off on Thursday, September 13, 2007 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania as part of the National Constitution Center’s birthday celebration. Created to capture the significance of the United States Constitution, Classic Cake’s winning entry was a three-tiered masterpiece to represent the three branches of government. It was adorned with miniature chocolate liberty bells and a sweet tasting Constitution scroll replica.

As a result of winning the National Constitution Center Cake Off, Classic Cake had the privilege of creating a cake for the Constitution Day luncheon on Monday, September 17, 2007 and received an invitation to attend the 2007 Liberty Medal Ceremony of Thursday, September 27, 2007, an event in which Classic Cake is honored to prepare the individual desserts for the celebration.

“On behalf of our entire team, we are extremely proud to receive this honor,” states Robert Bennett, Executive Chef, AHB Foods. “It is a tremendous privilege to be a part of the National Constitution Center’s birthday celebration and Liberty Medal Ceremony.”

Classic Cake is part of AHB Foods (www.AHBFoods.com), a national manufacturer of high-end, fresh and par-baked, artisan breads and dessert specialties, featuring gelato, sorbet, cakes, pastries, chocolates and cookies located in Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
