

Press Contact: Glori Gayster
GDG Consulting, Inc.
856-427-6144

AHB Foods Is On The Rise With The Purchase of Paris Dessert

May 10, 2007 – Cherry Hill, NJ – AHB Foods (AHBF), a national manufacturer of high-end artisan breads and dessert specialties, announces the acquisition of Paris Dessert, a wholesaler of high quality dessert delicacies throughout New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, further expanding their product line, geographic territory and customer base.

Led by culinary expert Marc Fertoukh and Charles Darmani, Paris Dessert was founded in 1988 and over the years expanded from its original 400 square foot location in Morrisville, Pennsylvania to a 10,000 square foot, state-of-the-art facility in Hamilton, New Jersey. Paris Dessert customers include many major five star hotels & restaurants, including Atlantic City casinos. In 2000, Paris Dessert was awarded "Best Pastry Shop in New Jersey" and in 2002, Governor James McGreevey honored Paris Dessert with a Proclamation of Excellence as the recipient of the "Business of the Year Award".

"The acquisition of Paris Dessert is a natural extension of AHB Foods as we share the strongest of commitment to quality and service," states Jay Roseman, President, AHB Foods. "We look forward to retaining and expanding the offerings available to existing Paris customers."

AHB Foods (www.AHBFoods.com) is a national manufacturer of high-end, fresh and par-baked, artisan breads and dessert specialties, featuring gelato, sorbet, cakes, pastries and cookies located in Cherry Hill, New Jersey.

###